

MISC. DOCKET NO.
1760001-005
IN THE DISTRICT AND COUNTY COURT AT LAW OF BOWIE COUNTY TEXAS

FILED FOR RECORD
2017 JAN -6 AM 9:27

GENERAL ORDER

BILLY FOX
DISTRICT CLERK BOWIE CO. TX.
Billy Fox

The Court having considered the requirements of Tex. Rules Civ. Proc. §§ 21c, 79, 306 and Tex. Family Code §§ 105.006 & 108.001, among other rules and statutes, finds that sensitive data is often required to be filed pursuant to Texas Rules and Statutes; and the Courts finding that sensitive data often contains information that publically disclosed could result in confidential information becoming public information. Accordingly, upon the filing of a pleading containing sensitive information along with an identical, second pleading containing redactions to the sensitive information, the District Clerk's Office is Ordered to seal the non-redacted version of the pleading and further Ordered to make the redacted version of the pleading public information, unless otherwise sealed pursuant to law. The parties, their attorneys, the Court and District Clerk's office personnel are hereby authorized to review the un-redacted pleading. Any pleading containing un-redacted sensitive data submitted for filing in accordance with the Texas Rule of Civil Procedure or Texas statutes, where no identical, second redacted pleading has also been filed, shall not be sealed as set forth herein until an identical, second redacted version of the pleading has been submitted for filing.
