You may be excused from jury service if:

1. you are over 75 years of age;
2. you have legal custody of a child or children younger than 12 years of age and service on the jury would require leaving the child or children without adequate supervision;
3. you are a student at a public or private high school;
4. you are enrolled and attend college;
5. you are an officer or an employee of the senate, the house of representatives, or any department, commission, board, office or other agency in the legislative branch of state government;
6. you are the primary caretaker of a person who is an invalid unable to care for himself or herself. (This exemption does not apply to health care workers.)
7. you are a member of the United States Military forces serving on active duty and deployed to a location away from the person's home station and out of the person's county of residence.

If you must claim a disqualification, pre-register online. You will receive confirmation from Jury Services.

After you are registered online you can check the status.

Status: Confirmed - Report on (means report on appearance date)

Status: Confirmed - Service Complete (means do not report, your service is complete)

What to Expect

You will report to the Central Jury Room on the date and time you are summoned to appear.

Appropriate dress is required. No shorts or tank tops. Please dress as you would for church or a job interview.

There will be some time spent sitting/waiting in the Central Jury Room or in the hallway outside of the courtrooms, so you may want to bring reading material with you. After orientation, the District Clerk will begin assigning jury panels to Courts. Please be aware that there are some hearings or matters going on inside the courtroom that must be handled outside of the presence of the jury panel. Your patience is appreciated

Your employer is not required to pay you while on jury duty; however, employers are prohibited by law from firing an employee for serving as a juror.

Payment and Certificates of Service

You will receive $20.00 for the first day of your jury service. You will receive $58.00 per day for days 2 and over of jury service. Donation forms will be available if you choose to donate your jury pay.

Certificates of Service for employment purposes are issued once your jury duty is complete. The District Clerk's staff can issue the Certificates.
